

PHOTO COURTESY SEA COAST MISSION

CARING FOR SENIORS ... Twenty-six representatives from 12 island communities with year-round populations and no bridge access to the mainland gathered for a conference hosted by the Bar Harbor-based Maine Sea Coast Mission on Nov. 9 and 10 in Lincolnville to discuss resources and care for the aging population on area islands. Among attendees were representatives from Frenchboro, Great Cranberry, Islesford, and Swans Island.